THE QUALITY OF A BUGGY SHOWS IN ITS USE.

If you want a buggy of which you can always be sure we have it. It will OUT-WEAR, OUT-LOOK and OUT-STAY any buggy made anywhere by anybody, (no exception whatever) and look better when you have gotten tired of it than most buggies do after 1 or 2 years use. This sounds big and might seem like WIND, but we are back of it all. Our guarantee on this buggy is the strongest ever given on ANY BUGGY by ANY FIRM.

"We guarantee it fully against any defect in material for TWO YEARS from date of purchase. For one year we guarantee wheels, axles, springs, running gear and shafts AGAINST BREAKAGE from any cause whatever. No questions asked at all. If your horse runs away, if you drive over a stump, in fact an accident of any kind breaking up your buggy will be fully covered."

That is the quality of this buggy and the price right. We still have the best, cheap, buggy ever sold in this county. Let us show them to you.

REGULAR KILLING

This Time Occurred at Pembroke Saturday Night.

Claude Bradshaw Jailed Charged With Murdering Dan Butler.

The usual Saturday night negro killing occurred this time near Pembroke.

The dead body of a negro named Dan Butler was found on the railroad track Sunday morning. He had been killed and placed on the track. Two bullet holes were in his head and his skull was crushed where the car wheel had struck the head and knocked it out of the way. Claude Bradshaw, another negro, was last seen with the victim and was first to report the finding of the body.

Bradshaw was examined and stated that Butler left him at midnight and said he was going to Mat Enoch's, and that he (Bradshaw) said in Hollis' undertaking shop in Pembroke, and found the body as he was going home about day.

Mr. P. C. Hollis contradicted this story, saying no one stayed in his shop, and that he was up about day and saw no one about.

The coroner's jury returned the following verdict:

"We, the jury summoned to look into the cause of the death of Dan Butler, who was found dead one mile and a half south of Pembroke, on the east side of the railroad track. We find that there are two bullet holes in his head, one taking effect above the right eye and the other behind the right ear. We further find that some one had killed him and put him on the track. One bullet passed through his head. We find $4.30 on his person and a pistol lying near him. His age was 30 years. He leaves a wife and two children. We further find that Claud Bradshaw was the first man to find him and the last seen with him last night. We charge him with the murder of Dan Butler."

The coroner thereupon arrested Bradshaw and brought him to jail. His trial is set for next Thursday.

NARROW ESCAPE.

Rabid Dog Attacks Mrs. Hayes East of City.

The wife of Mr. A. C. Hayes, who lives a few miles East of the city, narrowly escaped being bitten by a rabid dog a few evenings ago.

A dog belonging to a neighbor became afflicted with the rabies and left home. Although a sharp look-out had been kept for the canine, he was not heard of until he made his appearance at Mr. Hayes' house about dark. Mrs. Hayes was standing at the front gate and the dog made a rush for her. She shut the gate just in time to prevent the animal from seizing her. Mrs. Hayes ran into the house and barred the doors. The dog succeeded in getting into the yard but was shot and killed by Mr. Hayes before he had time to do any damage. As the animal had been roaming in the woods for several days it is feared that he bit stock, and trouble may yet result.

BALDHEADED CLUB.

President Claggett Adopts a Roosevelt Ruling.

Col. Ed Buchanan Explains the Water Cure as Used By the Army.

It looked like old times to see President Claggett presiding over the Baldheaded Club once more last Saturday night.

As heretofore reported, the factional fight that threatened the disruption of the club was brought to a peaceable end at a recent meeting and by general consent Col. Claggett was elected President in a spirit of compromise.

Now that there was no longer any danger of bloodshed, the meeting this time again took on the old air of a pleasant social reunion. President Claggett was arrayed in purple and fineline when he took the chair at exactly the hour of midnight. That is to say, he had on a linen collar and a purple necktie. Of course he wore some other articles of apparel, but these were the most conspicuous features of his attire.

"I see," said the President, "that President Roosevelt has issued an order muzzling Gen. Funston, to keep him from talking his fool head off, telling how he captured Aguinaldo and ended the war in the Philippines. I give Teddy credit for originating a clever idea, and I shall adopt it myself if I find it necessary, in running this club. Those of you who are in the habit of exercising your vocal organs while this body is in session, would do well to ponder seriously on this manifesto number One."

Ed W. Tibbs moved that a committee be appointed to investigate how many if any of the five candidates for appellate judge were bald. Col. Walter Southall said he knew them all and to the best of his knowledge and belief at least half of the five were third degree members of the Knights of the Shining Plate.

The President appointed on the committee Col. Walter Kelly, Albert Kelly, Wallace Kelly and M. D. Kelly.

Col. Henry Abernathy moved that the sittings of the committee be held at Kelly's Station, but the motion failed to receive a second.

Col. Ed Buchanan, a veteran of the Philippine war, was called upon to explain the "water cure" practiced on the Filipinos by the American soldiers.

Col. Buchanan readily consented and began by asking Col. Mat Starling to kindly step forward and be used as an object lesson. Col. Starling begged to be excused and said he would prefer to see some one else take it.

Col. Buchanan then called for some one to volunteer his stomach, but all seemed reluctant to oblige him. Finally he said that while water was generally used, he had telephoned for a keg of cool beer to be used on this occasion. This announcement brought so many volunteers to the front that several members narrowly escaped being run over and seriously hurt. Col. Ed Gathier fell down in the stampede and broke a ten dollar bill. Col. Martin Davis stepped on Col. Bill Cooper's corn and caused him to break one or more of the ten commandments. Finding it difficult to make a selection, or even to get the beer safely through the crowd in the aisle, the Colonel finally decided to dispense the horrors of the cure in words only which he proceeded to do, though his talk was not closely followed by all of his hearers. He told how the nozzle of a syringe was inserted into the mouth of the native, who was held fast to prevent struggling, and the liquid was pumped into his stomach until he consented to tell all he knew, or would be too full for utterance," as a famous Grecian humorist used to say in 428 B. C. His description of the sufferings of the victim when water was used was so graphic and pathetic that several members shed barn tiers.

When Col. Buchanan had told all he knew, which took about 11 minutes, Col. Joe Twyman reported that Mr. Harry Bryan was in the ante room claiming the right to join the club as a baldheaded man.

President Claggett appointed a committee of five to examine into the applicant's qualifications for membership. He named Col. Jas. West, Byron West, G. U. West, R. D. West and P. E. West. They reported that Mr. Bryan was not bald but had merely shaved his head and that the committee had advised him to go west and tarry in Cadiz until his hair could grow. There being no further business before the club, the session was brought to a close.

The first legislative step looking to the establishment of diplomatic relations between the United States and Cuba has been taken by the Senate Committee on Foreign Rela-mended, is provided for a Minister three Consulates, instead of two a Consul at $3,500 per annum. The other two are Cienfuegos and Sana Consul-General at Havana, with a salary of $5,000; also, a Secretary and an Assistant Secretary of Legation, at salaries of $2,000 and $1,500, respectively.

lowed for rent of legation buildings.

Beware of Ointments for Catarrh That Contain Mercury

As mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely de-base the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescription from a reputable physician, as the damage they will do to the system is great. It is a fact that the most valuable cure for Catarrh of the Nose, Throat, Larynx, and Trachea, is Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney and Co., and is taken internally, acting di-surfaces of the system. In buying

The Small of the Back

That is where many people feel weak all the time.
They are lazy, to be dependent and it is not unusual to find them barring trouble as if they hadn't thought of it.

The fact is their kidneys are weak, either naturally or because of sickness, exposure, worry or other influences.

"I am thankful to say," writes J. L. Campbell, of St. Louis, Mo., "that Hood's Sarsaparilla has cured me. For many years I was troubled with backache. At times I was so bad I had to be helped from the bed or chair.
I am now well and strong and free from pain." What this great medicine did for him it has done for others.

The Owensboro Inquirer says the price of "Whisky and other necessaries of life" have mounted sky-wards in that city. Here is its plaintive wail:

"At all of the bars in the city the price of bottled-in-bond whisky has been raised to 15 cents a drink and 25 a quart. There is no raise in other drinks, the plain whisky, which may be as good or even better, remaining at 10 cents. Nearly all of the boarding houses have raised their prices 50 cents on the week in order to keep going in the face of advancing prices of meat and other necessities. The same cause forced the Rudd House to raise its rates 50 cents a day for rooms and meals to $2.50, $3 and $5, and to 75 cents for meals."

An air of spring pervades Scribner's Magazine for May. It contains a beautiful drawing in color by Henry McArthur to illustrate Heine's "May-Song"; there is a breezy salt water narrative by James B. Connolly who gives his adventures "On a North Sea Snack" (Illustrated by M. J.
Burns) another of those inimitable fishing sketches which have already put Mr. Connolly in the front rank of writers of the sea; an exciting "Fight with Muskallonge," by John R. Rathorn, who in a very brief space gives the reader all the sensation that an expert fisherman gets in landing a gamy fish (illustrated with a spirited picture by A. B. Frost); and there is an "Early May" poem by John Burroughs.

A double frontispiece in color by Maxfield Parrish, showing desert and reclaimed land in Arizona side by side, accentuates the beginning in the May Century of the promised series on "The Great Southwest" by Ray Stannard Baker, the other illustrations of which are also from drawings by Mr. Parrish. The first paper deals with the large aspects of this little known region—natural features, climate, population, irrigation, character; character of the people, etc. "The Capital of Our Democracy," by Henry Loomis Nelson, is a close study of Washington society by an experienced observer, with much anecdote and with illuminating pictures by Charlotte Harding.

K. P. MEETING.

Great Preparations Being Made For Next Gathering.

The National Biennial Gathering of the Knights of Pythias, which is to be held in San Francisco, August 10th to 20th, is probably destined to become memorable as the greatest fraternal gathering in the history of this country, in point of numbers as well as of splendor.
The people of San Francisco and of California are determined that it shall eclipse all similar conventions ever held in the United States.
Never before was there such unani-mity of action among all the people of the coast. It is not the members of the order alone who take such a lively interest in the coming gathering of the hosts, but merchants, manufacturers, farmers and miners, all are interested to make the affair a glorious one for California and the most pleasant for the visitors. It will be made the occasion for showing the famed beauties of this wonderful land of the West.
Every county and section of the State will bring its choicest products, and place them on exhibition. The city is to be transformed into a fairy land, and the night will be turned into day. Carloads of the choicest fruits will be sent each day from different sections for free distribution. The famous gardens of Santa Clara, Marin and Sonoma counties are to furnish the material for the grandest floral display ever seen. The giants of California's famous forests will be planted at convenient points for visitors to gaze at. Bearing trees from the citrus belt will be brought by the thousands and set along the curbs. Quartz and hydraulic mining will be in operation as an object lesson to visitors, and oil wells will be bored to show the operation to those of the Uniform Rank will be in the parade, escorted by the National Guard of California and the troops of the United States army stationed at the Government Reservation and the forts near the city. Trophies made of California gold and silver, the most valuable ever offered will be given by the citizens for the competitive drill. The temperature in August is mild, from 65 to 70 degrees, with a mild breeze from the ocean. The climate is the most agreeable that can be imagined.

There is ample accommodation in the city for 200,000 visitors—that has been demonstrated on two recent occasions, when fully that number of strangers visited the city at one time, and all were comfortably housed. Besides this, Congress has authorized the Secretary of War to issue 1,000 wall tents for use during the encampment, and as many more tents will be issued as may be required. These, and the 5,000 bunks to be placed in the great pavilion, will be at the disposal of members of the Uniform Rank who prefer outdoor life during the camp. Living in San Francisco, that is, good living, is cheaper than in any other large city in the Union. Fruit and vegetables grow in abundance the year round; there is no hot, nor cold, nor an off season. Meat is plentiful and cheap, and it is the very best quality.
Good rooms may be had at 50 cents a night, or at $3 a week, in the residence part. In August fruit enough can be had from any street vender for five cents to feed a family.

Now, as to the rates of transportation: The Trans-Continental Passenger Association has agreed upon the following excursion rates for the round trip to San Francisco and Los Angeles, good from August 2 to September 30, for the return; from Chicago, St. Paul, Minneapolis, Duluth, Superior and all adjacent points, $50; Peoria, $48; Han-gibal, St. Louis, Cairo, Memphis, New Orleans, Shreveport, $47.50; Missouri River points, Mincola, Houston and San Antonio, $45; Colorado points, $40; Salt Lake, $36.50; Albuquerque, El Paso and Ocala, $35. The same rates govern all points and stations of the same distance. First class trains and accommodations will be run during the entire excursion season. The rates for side trips are lower than ever in the history of coast travel, affording visitors an opportunity to see the whole coast and interior during their stay.

On account of the meeting of the new Louisville Jockey club the I. C. railroad will sell round trip tickets to Louisville, on May 2 to 24, inclusive at 1¢, limited to May 26. Tick-Wont Follow Advice After Paying For It.

In a recent article a prominent physician says, "It is next to impossible for the physician to get his patients to carry out any prescribed course of hygiene or diet to the smallest extent; he has but one resort left, merely the drug treatment." When medicines are used for chronic constipation, the most mild and gentle obtainable, such as Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets, should be employed. Their use is not followed by constipation as they leave the bowels in a natural and healthy condition. For sale by all druggists.

No Loss of Time.

I have sold Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for years, and would rather be out of coffee and sugar than it. I sold five bottles of it yesterday to thrashers that could go no farther, and they are at work again this morning.—H. R. PHILIPS, Plymouth, Oklahoma. As will be seen by the above the thrashers were able to keep on with their work without losing a single day's time. You should keep a bottle of this Remedy in your home. For sale by all druggists.

The Most Common Ailment.

More people suffer from rheumatism than from any other ailment. This is wholly unnecessary too, for a cure may be effected at a very small cost. G. W. Wescott, of Meadowdale, N. For sale by all druggists.

USEFUL LIFE ENDED.

Congressman Amos J. Cummings. Dies In Baltimore.

Had Been a Typesetter, Soldier, Editor and Was a Congressman For Many Years.

Baltimore, May 2.—Congressman Amos J. Cummings, of New York, died at 10:15 o'clock to-night at the Church Home Infirmary in this city. The cause of his death was pneumonia, incident to an operation. The Congressman's wife and cousin, Charles H. Cummings, were at his bedside when death came.

Mr. Cummings entered a printing office when he was twelve years of age as an apprentice, and had set type in almost every State in the Union. He entered the army as a Sergeant Major in the Twenty-sixth New Jersey regiment of infantry and received the Congressional medal of honor for gallantry on the battlefield.

He filled editorial positions on the New York Tribune under Horace Greeley, and in later years was connected from time to time with many of the New York papers, including the New York Herald and Evening Sun.

Whoooping Cough.

A woman who has had experience with this disease, tells how to prevent any dangerous consequences from it. She says: "Our three children took whooping cough last summer, our baby boy being only three months old, and owing to our giving them Chamberlain's Cough Remedy, they lost none of their plumpness and came out in much better health than other children whose parents did not use this remedy. Our oldest little girl would call lustily for cough syrup when she was sick.—JESSIE PINEY HALL, Springfield, Ala. This Remedy is for sale by all druggists."

TO FIGHT DIVORCES.

Part of the Duties of the County Attorney.

The Owensboro Inquirer says the county attorney has missed several good fees by not enforcing section 2119 of the Kentucky statutes, and at the same time his firm has lost many dollars by his being county attorney, in reference to that section, which is applicable to the prosecution of divorce suits. Section 2119 reads: "It shall be the duty of the county attorney to resist every application for a divorce and if successful, in defeating it, he shall be allowed a fee of $20 to be paid by the husband, who may be compelled to pay same by attachment. This section has never been enforced, and when asked about the matter Mr. Clements said: "I am perfectly familiar with the section, but have never enforced it for the reason that most of the divorce suits are brought by parties who are unable to pay any costs, and I did not wish to incur any extra expense. I have missed several fees, and at the same time my firm has suffered, because we can not bring divorce suits while I am county attorney. I see the clerk has put my name on the docket representing the defendant in the divorce suit of Hodgkins against Hodgkins, which was filed yesterday, and of course I will have to resist the granting of the divorce. The law is an old one, and I doubt whether there is a county attorney in the state that ever gives it any attention."

BUCKSKIN BILL'S SHOW.

A Large Crowd Witnesses the Parade This Morning.

The usual large circus day crowd was in the city to-day and during the parade this morning Main street was lined. The parade, of course, presented a wild west appearance. There were frontiersmen, cow girls and Indians in great numbers and there were more than two hundred horses and mules in the parade. A Cheyenne stage coach which no doubt has had a remarkable history, and a genuine prairie schooner were unique attractions, as was also the Mexican band.

Buckskin Bill's show arrived in the city from Grand Rapids early Sunday morning, and the tents were pitched in Holpeshstone's addition. A special train of seventeen cars brought the show to Washington. Buckskin Bill, whose real name is W. F. Brandon, is a typical man of the West and it is claimed that he outkicks the best of them in handling a revolver.

Another notable character is the mysterious Don Gancho Francisco, who hails from Old Mexico, and who performs marvelous feats with a "ririata." E. Merdenhall's shooting with a repeating shot gun is very fine and the impalement act of the Adella, the Mexican ax and knife throwers, is a thrilling performance. The Indians, some thirty in number, are of the Sioux tribe and some of them took an active part in the late disturbances at Wounded Knee, South Dakota.—Detroit, Mich., "Free Press," June 11, 1900. Will exhibit in Hopkinsville Wed. May 14.
